

INTERNATIONAL GASTROENTEROLOGICAL DAYS

Belgrade, 11-12 May 2018

Dear colleagues and dear friends,

On behalf of the Gastroenterology section of the SMA (Serbian Medical Association) and the Organizing Committee it is my great honor and pleasure to warmly welcome you to the International XVIII Gastroenterological Days of SMA that will be held in Belgrade from 11-12 May 2018.

The Symposium will bring together a large number of doctors and experts from the surrounding countries and the host country. I hope this will be a new opportunity for an unselfish exchange and spread of new ideas, experiences and knowledge, creative discussion and establishing new friendships.

Dear friends, I welcome you to Serbia and Belgrade, the historical, cultural, educational, scientific, economic and political capital of Serbia. Belgrade is a city of open heart and good people whose hospitality is well known all around the world.

I wish everyone successful work, lots of new acquaintances and nice socializing in beautiful Belgrade.

With highest regards and best wishes,
Predrag Dugalić, MD
